Day 2

Morning Parasailing Adventure

From your seat 150 meters above the water's surface you will view the beautiful blue contrasts of the ocean and lagoon below which reveal an array of marine life including fish, dolphins and rays. All of this from 150 meters above the water. Moorea Parasailing, run by 2 highly trained Polynesians, boasts the largest parachute boat in Polynesia.

Afternoon Botanical Gardens Tour

Enjoy the beauty and aroma of the many tropical flowers of Tahiti. One of the most prolific flowers is the hibiscus—known as pureu in Tahitian. View hundreds of varieties of this tropical island symbol including "Tahitian ZULU Rainbow", "Tahitian Sun Dancer" and "Tahitian Purple Splendor". Included is a lively program and demonstration of the many flower traditions of Tahiti by the International Hibiscus Society.

Dinner at Le Coco's

Day 3

Morning Golfing at Olivier Breaud

Enjoy 18 holes of GOLF on this par 72 PGA course built in the 1970's on an old cotton plantation. The course is renowned internationally for the quality of its fairways and its greens as well as for the beauty of its location.

Afternoon Massage and Facial

Deep Nature Spa on the resort grounds will be the bring the beauty of the islands all around you as you experience the Tahitian Wave Massage and Cleansing Facial package. Then relax at the tea lounge and enjoy a steam bath to finish the day.

Dinner at Te Tiare

Day 4

Morning James Norman Hall Home Tour

James Norman Hall was a U.S. Army pilot in France during WWI who was shot down behind German lines and held prisoner. Shortly after the war, he met Charles (CHARLIE) Nordhoff in Paris and they started writing novels together. In 1920, they both moved to Tahiti where they co-authored "Mutiny on the Bounty" among other books. This museum and guided tour will give an intimate glimpse into the life of Tahiti's most famous author.

Afternoon Scuba Diving Adventure

PAPA WHISKEY is a little artificial islet situated on the axis of the landing strip of the airport. The collapse of part of the underwater plateau created a 70 meter long amphitheatre. Inside, the effects of the current are much less noticeable, making it a good dive site. This guided trip will explore the Southern end of the amphitheatre with its array of soft corals and up close encounters with marine life.

Dinner at L'O a la Bouche

Day 5

Morning Tour of Vallee de la Vanille

Tahitian vanilla is a treasure and brings a premium price (up to $600 per KILO). This tour of a small vanilla plantation will explain the process of growing and harvesting vanilla and why Tahitian vanilla is so expensive and sought after in the United States.

Afternoon Tahitian Dance Lesson

Learn the Oritahiti (rapid, rhythmic dance) and the Aparima (slow, sensual dance) in this 2 hour lesson with the International School of Tahitian Dance. All costumes provided.

Dinner at Blue Banana

Day 6
