4-H Clothing Events

Do you enjoy learning about fashion and/or like to model? If so, you may be interested in participating in the Central Region 4-H Clothing Events.

In Fun with Fashion participants select and model outfits along with their accessories based on a given situation. Situations are selected prior to the event. Participants are judged based on their selection, presentation, and consumer decision making skills. Prizes are awarded to the models with the highest scores.

Clover Collection is another event 4-H members can participate in. In the Clover Collection, participants model clothing that he or she constructed. Participants are judged based on their pattern selection, ability to sew, and presentation. Prizes will be awarded to the participants with the highest scores.

Both Fun with Fashion and the Clover Collection will be held September 10 at the Tennessee State Fair in Nashville. Contact Michelle Matthews at 723-5141 to register for and/or obtain more information about these events.
