The purpose of the tour is to inform people about how new technology, equipment, and management are being used on today’s farm. It is an opportunity for both farm and non-farm people to see today’s agricultural practices.

The tour is open to anyone. However, there are only 55 spots available. There is a $20.00 per person charge for the tour. Payment is required to reserve your spot. We ask that you please pre-register no later than Noon, June 26, 2015 either in person or by sending in the attached form and payment to UT Extension-McMinn County, 107 West College Street, Athens, TN 37303.

You may wish to call ahead to check availability of spots before mailing registration form and payment at (423) 745-2852. We must have registration by deadline for a head count for lunch.

The Tour will count as one Master Beef Producer Session

All person(s) who attend the tour do so at their own risk. Athens Stockyard, UT Extension, Agri Records, AgCentral Co-op, McMinn Livestock and Meigs County Cattlemen’s Associations, their staff or employees, or any other person or business/farm connected with the farm tour does not assume any liability, legal or otherwise.
