A Parent should know....
The Clyde Austin 4-H Center near Greeneville is a modern camp facility. The Center is nestled in the beautiful hills of East Tennessee and has a panoramic view of the Great Smoky Mountains. The sleeping quarters and dining hall complex were built in 1980. In the air-conditioned 400-seat dining hall, food is served cafeteria-style from a sparkling stainless steel kitchen. Campers enjoy home-cooked meals and may return for seconds. The contemporary-style, air-conditioned dormitories provide a restful atmosphere with clean bath facilities. Accommodations for campers with disabilities are available. The camp is accredited according to the strict guidelines of the American Camp Association.

What is 4-H Survivor Camp?
4-H Survivor Camp is geared more toward older youth and features adventure-type and active-engaged programming. We’ll have tribal challenges, an Amazing Race, 4-H IDOL competition, and Dancing with the Stars! AND ....Campers will have their choice of four special adventures on one day!

Things to do
Campers can enjoy an Olympic-sized, crystal-clear pool; covered rifle range; archery range; shotgun trap range; muzzle loading range; a large recreation hall; ball fields, and basketball courts. Other facilities include a nature center, woodworking shop and an airbrush center. They can also fish, canoe or enjoy a paddleboat ride on the lake. Other activities include a low ropes course, leather crafts, fossil class and a mock archaeological dig. An outdoor theater is the backdrop for campfires and vespers. A canteen offers refreshing snack items.
