Get plugged-in to the Flavors of Fall!

The Central Region of the Tennessee Association for Family and Community Education (TAFCE) is planning a Virtual Retreat via Zoom on November 9-11, 2020. Come join us as we meet together from the safety and comfort of our own homes for three days of cook-alongs, interactive games, speakers, marketable skill classes and exercise sessions. See below to get the full schedule and then we hope you are excited to register for this free event!

Get PLUGGED-IN TO FCE!

Registration is open October 15 through November 2.

How do I register?

To register go to: <https://tiny.utk.edu/CRFCERETREAT20>

You will be directed to complete 2 steps:

1. RSVP for the Retreat.
2. Choose one marketable skill class for each day, if desired, and RSVP for the one you choose.
3. Check your email to make sure you received confirmation emails then again on November 5th for the zoom link to the retreat.

You will not select any sessions other than the marketable skills sessions.

Still need help?

Watch this fun tutorial video to see it done in real time! <https://youtu.be/7iAfe9xA72E>
See also the schedule and session description attachment.

What will I get?

- You will receive immediate confirmation emails for the retreat and marketable skills sessions.

- On November 5th, those that have RSVP'd to the Retreat will receive an email with their zoom link. Please do not share this link. Use this link for all sessions of the retreat except for the Beef for the Holidays session, which will have a link e-mailed out Monday evening for the next day.

Where is the Schedule?

To view the Retreat Schedule and session descriptions click here or see attachment to this email.

What Supplies will I need?

- To view and download marketable skills and cooking supply lists and/or handouts for sessions, click here.
- You can also view these on the registration website by clicking the "More" tab if using your computer or the three lines if using a mobile device, then click "Schedule" or "Supplemental Resources."

Who can attend?

Anyone. We hope that you invite all of the FCE members in your county. We also hope that you use this as a unique marketing opportunity for potential new members!

What if I have more questions?

If you have any questions regarding registering for the TAFCE, Central Region Retreat, please contact your county FCS Extension agent.

We look forward to sharing this special time of learning, growing and getting plugged-in with you!

Sincerely,

TAFCE, CR Retreat Planning Committee
