

SCOTT COUNTY QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER

Agriculture, Natural Resources and Community Economic Development

Tennessee Agricultural Enhancement Program (TAEP) invests in Tennessee farmers by providing cost share dollars. Application period is October 1-15, 2019.

The University of Tennessee Institute of Agriculture is hosting three Field Days this October: Ag in the Foothills, Northeast TN Beef Expo, and Woods and Wildlife. Contact our office to learn more about these hands-on workshop opportunities.

Now is the time to start implementing cover crops in your garden, pasture, etc. Cover crops are a valuable management tool that can help improve soil quality, provide nutrients and organic matter, and reduce weed, disease, and insect pressure. Our office can provide recommendations based on your needs!

Family & Consumer Sciences/ TNCEP

Fall has officially begun and pumpkin is in the air! Contact your Family & Consumer Sciences Agent for delicious healthy Pumpkin recipes to make this season!

This October, during Fall break, Extension will be having a Fall cooking camp called Adventures in the Kitchen! This 4-day program is for youth 4th-6th grade and will teach youth hands-on cooking skills!

Also starting in October, Extension will be starting a new program: Eating Smart Through the Lifecycle. This hands-on cooking and nutrition program is a series of classes meant for pregnant women and parents of new infants.

Parenting Apart: Effective Co-Parenting, a mandatory class for parents who have filed for divorce, is available once a month.

Please call the office for any questions or if you would like to sign up for any of these programs. Check out our "Events & Important dates" for scheduled programs.

4-H Youth Development

School is back in session! Which means, we are back in our in-school clubs!

This fall we are gearing up for our 4-H Paper Clover fundraiser at Tractor Supply! This will take place from October 9th to October 20th! If any of our 4-H'ers would like to get involved with the Paper Clover fundraiser, please contact our office!
