

Scott County Extension Quarterly Newsletter

Agriculture, Natural Resources and Community Economic Development

The Scott County Farmers Market season is almost here! Visit the market this spring on Saturdays from 9:00am to 2:00pm and see what we have to offer from fresh produce to unique crafts. And new vendors are always welcome. More information can be found at scott.tennessee.edu or on our Facebook at facebook.com/ScottCountyFM

The University of Tennessee Institute of Agriculture will present its Organic Crops Field Tour on Thursday, April 25. This spring event will equip home and commercial growers alike with tips and resources for planting, harvesting and processing organic fruits and vegetables. More info at east.tennessee.edu

Family & Consumer Sciences / TNCEP

The first Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) program that your new FCS Agent will provide here in Scott County will be offered starting next month—May! The educational program is Parenting Apart: Effective Co-Parenting, and this program is designed for divorcing parents of minor children. Check out the Scott County Extension page at scott.tennessee.edu for more information and dates on this program!

Family & Community Education Meetings take place during the first Monday of each month at 6:00.
