County Public Speaking Winners Announced

Over 1,000 speeches were presented by 4-H members in Grades 4th—6th. Winners from each classroom were selected to represent their school at the county level competition. First and second place county winners are eligible to attend the Sub-Regional Public Speaking Contest, January 23, 2020 at Motlow Community College in Tullahoma.

4th Grade
1st—Presley Winfree
2nd—Max Warner
3rd—Liv Jaco

5th Grade
1st—Hunter Rigsby
2nd—Kate Gribble
3rd—Colin Totherow

6th Grade
1st—Braden Herman
2nd—Essence Soto
3rd—Lauren Sparkman

4-H for February - 4th and 5th Grade 4-H Demonstration
6th Grade 4-H Educational Display

For detailed information, refer to pages 16—19 of your Warren County 4-H Yearbook.

- Beef
- Communications/Public Speaking
- Consumer Education/Economics
- Engineering / Safety Science
- Food Science
- Horticulture/ Garden
- Nutrition, Health and Fitness
- Plant Science
- Performing Arts/ Recreation
- Citizenship
- Companion Animals
- Dairy
- Entomology
- Goat
- Leadership
- Personal Development
- Poultry
- Swine
- Clothing and Textiles
- Computer and Technologies
- Electric
- Forestry, Wildlife & Fisheries
- Horse
- Line and Design
- Photography
- Sheep
- Veterinary Science

- Demonstrations and Interactive Exhibits must relate to one of the topics listed above.
- Demonstrations must be accompanied by a poster or trifold
- Interactive Exhibits must be accompanied by a trifold
- No live animals, babies, fireworks, weapons or anything prohibited at school.

Reminders
- Bread Baking Workshop—February 22
- Cornbread Cook-Off—February 29
- Registration—9:00 am—Contest—9:30 am

UT-TSU Extension Warren County
201 Locust Street, Suite 10, McMinnville, TN 37110
(931)473-8484
4-H Agents: Shay Davis, Emily Mote
Program Assistant: Leah Prater

Real. Life. Solutions.
Contest Guidelines

1. Each recipe must contain at least 1 cup corn meal or one package corn meal mix. Other than the mentioned cornmeal mix, no mixes allowed.
2. Cornbread must be prepared BEFORE the contest. No cornbread will be baked on site.
3. Refrigeration for entries is not provided.
4. The entry must be prepared by the 4-H member.
5. One entry allowed per 4-H member.
6. A typed recipe must accompany entry in the contest.

---

Cornbread Cook-Off—Saturday, February 29, 2020

Registration—9:00 am  Contest—9:30 am

Warren County Administration Building—Magnolia Room
201 Locust Street, McMinnville, TN 37110

Categories:

Grades 4—5
Traditional Cornbread—Plain, old-fashion cornbread - No ingredients such as meats, fruits, vegetables, cheeses, etc.

Grades 6—12
Non-traditional Cornbread—Cornbread including ingredients such as meats, fruits, vegetables, cheeses, etc.

Award will be presented in both age divisions.

Criteria for judging:
- Taste—40%
- Texture—30%
- Appearance—30%

---

Contest guidelines are as follows:

1. Each recipe must contain at least 1 cup corn meal or one package corn meal mix. Other than the mentioned cornmeal mix, no mixes allowed.
2. Cornbread must be prepared BEFORE the contest. No cornbread will be baked on site.
3. Refrigeration for entries is not provided.
4. The entry must be prepared by the 4-H member.
5. One entry allowed per 4-H member.
6. A typed recipe must accompany entry in the contest.