PARTICIPANT NOTES – Please read!

(Do not mail in with the form)

- You may NOT attend the same class with other parent. NO EXCEPTIONS!
- If you need special accommodations because of disability or language, please contact the Extension Office at the number below at least one week in advance of the class for which you are registering. Please be advised that we may be unable to provide some services or accommodations on weekend or late evening classes. Wheel chair access is available for all classes. One handicap parking slot is available on the street directly in front of the building.
- Court information and case/docket/civil action number is required to issue a Certificate of Completion. If you do not have this information at the time of registration, please try to have it available at the time of the class. We provide a certified copy of your completion certificate to the court in which your case is filed.
- If your case has not been filed at the time of the class, you may still attend the course, and it is possible for you to receive a letter verifying that you have completed the course. This letter, however, is no substitute for the completion certificate for court records. You are personally responsible for ensuring we receive correct court information once your case is filed. You may do this telephonically or in person. Your original certificate will be mailed to the address you provided in your registration unless you otherwise notify us of a different address.
- Please arrive at least 10-15 minutes before the scheduled class start to check in and insure that all administrative information is correct, and be seated in the classroom. Individuals will not be let in once the class has started.
- You must show a valid identification at the time of check-in. Drivers License or work issued picture ID is appropriate.
- You may reschedule a missed (no show) class one time. Your registration fee is forfeited after that. Reschedule prior to the scheduled class will be considered on a case by case basis.
- Please be advised that in the event of a returned check, the court of record will be notified and the certificate held until the returned check is made good.
- If you have other questions concerning the class or registering for this class, please contact 423-753-1680.
