UT Extension Washington County

Washington County 4-H program offer summer classes to complement many of the standard 4-H projects. Classes provide enrichment activities and help prepare displays and exhibits for the Appalachian & area fairs. The workshops will introduce youth to various aspects of developing and perfecting skills and hobbies. There will also be plenty of opportunities for youth to interact with other youth to share knowledge and friendships.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

UT Extension offers its programs to all eligible persons, regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age or disability. The day camps and workshops are offered to interested boys and girls who are in the 4th through 12th grade. Everyone who attends must have good behavior and is willing to participate fully in the learning activities.

COST AND FEES

Instructions are provided by the 4-H staff and volunteers who provides leadership for 4-H programs. Participants will pay a fee for materials and may be asked to bring additional items. Participants will need to pack a lunch for the all day classes.
