

November 21, 2017

Williamson County Agriculture Extension Newsletter

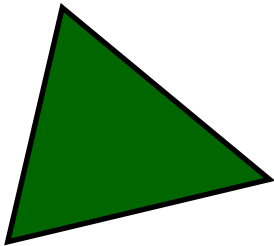

National EPA Director Scott Pruitt meets to discuss issues with local farmer Eddie Sanders (far left) and Extension personnel.

Graduates of the Williamson County/UT 2017 Advanced Master Beef Producer class — 121 participants.

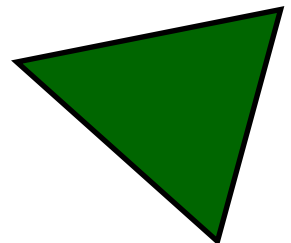

Williamson County Horticulture

2017 WCMG Impact
 12,420 hours of service and educational outreach!

- 9,922 volunteer hours •
- 2,498 continued education hours •
- 39 interns trained •

... representing a value to Tennessee of $ 299,818.80

Master Gardener Classes Offered

Applications for the 2018 WCMG intern class are now being accepted! Classes will run on consecutive Tuesday mornings, beginning February 6th, from 10am to 1pm. If interested, please access the horticulture page of the UT/TSU Williamson County Extension website at https://extension.tennessee.edu/Williamson/Pages/Horticulture_pages/Master-Gardener.aspx or contact Amy Dismukes at adismuke@utk.edu for more information.

4-H News

"4-H Line & Design groups learned to make pillow cases and aprons this month. The beginner groups focused on straight & zig zag stitches with their pillow cases. The intermediate group learned to gather for their aprons. We have sew much fun each month learning new skills & making fun projects!"

Matt Horsman • 615-790-5721 • mhorsman@utk.edu • Williamson County

