

Recommended Courses for All FCS County Agent

Department and Course Number	Course Name	Hours
Human Ecology 325	Strategies for Facilitating Learning	4
Human Ecology 425	Program Planning, Curriculum, and Evaluation	3
Health 325	Health Education Program Planning	3
Child and Family Studies 422	Early Childhood Teaching Methods	6
Education 401	Professional Studies: The Learner	3
Education 403	Professional Studies: Teaching and Curriculum	2
Human Resource Development 455	Performance-Based Evaluation	3
Human Resource Development 471	Principles of Supervision	3
Utilize teaching skills effective for the diversity of learners and abilities of young children, youth, or adults.
Child and Family Studies 420	Family Diversity	3
Retail and Consumer Sciences 321	Cultural Diversity in the Marketplace	3
Build community coalitions and partnerships to support priority program areas utilizing an "assets building" model of development. Develop and provide ongoing training for empowered volunteers to extend educational opportunities for learners.
Human Ecology 410	Human Ecological Systems	3
Human Ecology 445	Field Experience in Community-Based Programs	1-15
Health 300	Health Education, Promotion, and Behavior	3
Work with and through others utilizing teamwork skills to accomplish program objectives. This includes colleagues in the county Extension office, district and state Extension agents as well as external stakeholders.
Child and Family Studies 405	Development of Interpersonal Skills	3
Retail and Consumer Sciences 321	Diversity in the Marketplace	3