The UT College of Veterinary Medicine & the UT Extension Service offers the annual horse owners educational conference

“Advanced Equine Health Care for Horse Owners”
Saturday February 23, 2013

7:30-8:00 Registration
8:00-8:55 Parasite Control – Dr. Craig Reinemeyer
9:00-9:55 Equine first aid for Selected Problems – Dr. James Blackford
10:00-10:15 Break
10:15-11:05 Viral Diseases – Dr. Melissa Hines
11:10-12:00 Equine Arthritis – Dr. Steve Adair
12:00-12:45 Lunch
12:45-1:40 Pre-purchase examinations – Dr. José Castro
1:45-2:45 Nutrition focus on carbohydrates in forages and feeds – Dr. Bridgett McIntosh
2:55-3:10 Break
3:10-4:00 Equine metabolic diseases – Dr. Carla Sommardahl
4:10-4:40 New equine hospital services – Dr. David Anderson
4:40- Tours of the New Equine Facility – Large Animal Clinical Sciences Faculty
Advanced Equine Health Care for Horse Owners

Saturday, February 23, 2013
Knoxville, TN

The University of Tennessee College of Veterinary Medicine is offering an in-depth seminar for Horse Owners on Saturday, February 23, 2013 at the College of Veterinary Medicine in room A118 (the Sequoyah Room) University of Tennessee, Knoxville, TN. The College of Veterinary Medicine is located at 2407 River Dr. Knoxville, TN 37996.

For further information about program content and/or registration please contact Barbara Campbell at 865-974-7264 or email cvmce@utk.edu.

Registration Deadline: Monday, February 18, 2013.
You can register online or by mail/fax. Advanced registration is highly recommended.

Online registration visit www.vet.utk.edu/continuing-ed or to mail/fax/email, send registration form to:
Barbara Campbell CMP UICVM Continuing Education
2407 River Drive Room A104D
Knoxville, TN 37996-4550
f. 865-974-4773 • t. 865-974-7264
cvmce@utk.edu

Individuals: $35, Families: 1st member: $35, each additional member: $15 (fee covers lunch, refreshments & breaks)